

Development of an Enrollee Satisfaction Survey System for use in the Exchange Technical Expert Panel (TEP) Membership List

Project Title: Development of an Enrollee Satisfaction Survey System for use in the Exchange

Project Overview:

The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) contracted the American Institutes for Research (AIR) to develop an Enrollee Satisfaction Survey System for use in the Exchange. The contract name is Development of an Enrollee Satisfaction Survey System for use in the Exchange. The contract number is 75FCMC18D0027. As part of its measure development process, AIR convenes groups of stakeholders and experts who contribute direction and thoughtful input to the measure developer during measure development and maintenance. The TEP is a collaborative advisory body of approximately 19 individuals who represent a broad range of technical experts and stakeholders, including Exchange administrators, health plan representatives, consumers, consumer advocates, quality measurement experts, state officials, and federal agencies. The objective of the TEP is to advise CMS on the QHP Enrollee Survey implementation by providing input on topics such as survey refinement and improving access and response among diverse populations.
